In researching the various outcome measures (NDI, R-M, LEFS, Yellow Flags, DASH, SF-12, NPRS) I gained an understanding of how each measure was developed.

I learned why WCB choose to use those outcome measures over other available tools.

I learned what was considered statistically significant change for each of the measures and what those changes indicated regarding the function of my clients.

I am now able to appropriately choose which outcome measures to use with my clients, I am able to interpret re-test scores and use them as part of my assessment of the progress, or lack of, being made.

I can discuss the relevance and importance of these tools with my clients which is helping to gain compliance with proper completion of the forms.

It has improved my ability to determine RTW guidelines and timeframes.
